

LOCAL TRAFFIC ALERT

Effective Sunday,
October 5, 2025

The map below shows an overview of the Portland Marathon race course. You are receiving this notification because your home or business is on or near the route and there will be impacts to local traffic in your area.

PLEASE VISIT
PORTLANDMARATHON.COM/TRAFFIC
FOR SPECIFIC INFORMATION ON TRAFFIC IMPACTS
IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD.

LOCAL TRAFFIC ALERT

Effective Sunday, October 5, 2025

The 53rd running of the Portland Marathon will take place on Sunday, October 5th, 2025. You are receiving this notification because your home or business is located on or near the route.

Your neighborhood will have traffic impacts during the race. To ensure that you are aware of these impacts and are able to plan accordingly, you are encouraged to visit portlandmarathon.com/traffic to see more information specific to your neighborhood.

All streets used for the actual race will be posted "No Parking" on Saturday, October 4th, and Sunday, October 5th. To see an interactive map of the streets that will be used for the race, please visit portlandmarathon.com/courses.

The race relies on thousands of volunteers and compensates local groups for their volunteer efforts. If you are interested in volunteering as a group or as an individual, please visit portlandmarathon.com/volunteer. For questions regarding the City's administration of this permit, please contact Allison Madsen at allison.madsen@portlandoregon.gov or 503-865-2482.

PLEASE VISIT PORTLANDMARATHON.COM/TRAFFIC
FOR SPECIFIC INFORMATION ON TRAFFIC IMPACTS IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD.